Finding a place to park...

If a Commissionaire tells you not to park somewhere, don't, because while you're in class, he'll have your car towed away, and you'll be out taxi fare and an outrageous $50.00 towing charge. The same goes for parking in the wrong zone, improperly, or blocking a fire exit. You may get away with it once. You may get away with it twice, but on the occasion when it is most inconvenient [a cold, snowy Friday night] you'll search for your improperly parked car and it will be gone! So be warned, who has $50.00 to throw away these days?

RULES:

General: All vehicles parking on campus must be registered with Parking Control and display a valid permit after paying the applicable fee. Parking applications are received on a first come, first served basis. Everything possible will be done to accommodate parking demand. For those left waiting for parking, announcements of vacancies will be made from time to time through the campus media.

Where and How to Apply: Applications will be received between 0745 and 1600 Monday to Friday at Parking Office, 2T located off Roper Avenue.

Parking Fees: Fees are based on 9 months as follows: C Zone - $35, Motorcycle Zone - $17.50
Fee Payments: Fees are payable covering the 9 month term at time of application. Cash or cheque. Credit cards not accepted.

Refunds: Where a person wishes to cancel parking allocation prior to expiry date on permit, refund for the balance may be applied for through the Parking Control Officer, Building 2T, local 719.

Note: All permits must be purchased and affixed to windshield by the first week of classes in September. Vehicles without valid permit are subject to tow-away at owner's expense.
Parking Zones: The accompanying campus parking plan shows the various parking areas. To avoid having your car impounded off campus at the owner's expense day or night please do not violate the following:

1. Ensure that a valid permit is affixed to the inside lower left corner of the windshield.
2. Motorcycles to have permit affixed in a conspicuous location.
3. For day school permit holders park correctly only in the lot authorized on the permit. Night school parkers must display a valid permit to park on campus.
4. Do not park in spaces reserved for 24 hours, e.g. handicapped, service vehicles, Provincial Media Centre etc. Watch for signs.

5. Do not park in fire lanes, blocking off fire hydrants, along yellow curbs, on yellow lines, on roadways, in the middle of aisles in parking lots or anywhere not designated for parking or that impedes traffic flow.
6. Do not block off another properly parked vehicle.
7. Do not use parking permits fraudulently.
8. If your vehicle breaks down, contact control personnel who will assist if possible. Be sure your vehicle is kept locked and valuables out of sight. Direct all parking enquiries to Parking Control Officer, Building 2T, local 719.

(Information on parking supplied by the BCIT Safety and Security Department.)

COMPUTER CENTER
AT THE TNT IN THE 2N BUILDING

Year to year, student executives are more or less interchangeable. The 84-85 group looks much like the 83-84 group, which looked like the 82-83 group...and so on. They all assume power with the same promises; to keep an eye on the administration, prices at the TNT, the pub and Growlies, and to work hard in the best interests of students.

With unemployment continuing to be a major problem for young people, this year's executive feels a new pressure, to work on creating and advocating as much student employment on campus as possible. By all indications, a program aimed at employing students in the community last summer was a success. Although it was conceived by the 83-84 executive, it was the new group that saw it through, proving their commitment to creating student employment.

A traditional promise of the student executive is to increase awareness of the S.A., its officers and operations, and then to get more students involved. However, once classes start, individual members of the executive have a hard time keeping themselves involved in the S.A., let alone spend energy trying to encourage others to get involved. Past executive groups have tried a variety of routes - from getting students to design posters to hiring full-time employees to hype the S.A. However, every attempt has suffered from the dead horse syndrome. If an S.A. event or activity doesn't have the availability of beer attached to it, no amount of flogging will help.

The executive, well aware of this problem, have developed an 'open door' policy, which they hope will encourage students to get involved. Unfortunately, this doesn't go far enough. If the executive is serious about making an impression on the average student, they must do more than 'be available', they must get out in the open and be visible, vocal, and seen to be working on the issues. Only then will students take an interest in the S.A. Whether they agree or disagree with S.A. policy on an issue doesn't matter, at least they will get involved, and that is the real objective of the S.A.

Legal action pending

Editor, The Link,

We regret to announce Mr. Tim Giacomazzi was forced to resign July 9, 1984 due to breaches of the BCIT SA constitution and also contravention of the B.C. Societies Act under which the BCIT S.A. operates.

Due to the above, legal action has been taken and is now pending against Tim Giacomazzi and his company. Upon completion of legal proceedings, a full report will be made to the students of BCIT.
BCIT SA 1984-85

S.A. wants action on bus strike

Hon. Elwood Veitch,
Government Whip,
Legislature,
Victoria, B.C.

Dear Mr. Veitch:

It is the strong wish of this Student Association that the BC Government force an early return to work of the Metro Transit workers. This is almost an essential service in the metropolitan area and the people affected are the senior citizens, handicapped, poor people and students.

As none of the members of the Legislative Assembly ever have to ride the buses, it is felt the Government is not too interested in the welfare of those less fortunate.

If your Government is really concerned about the poor and elderly, you would do something against this monopoly situation.

One thing to remember when the link, september 5, 1984

you come to Medical Services is your BC Medical Insurance number and although we try to help you by allowing a first visit, you could help us to run a more efficient office if you would bring it with you the first time.

We also have a number of free pamphlets in addition to our medical services so please drop by and help yourself. Medical Services is open Monday to Friday from 8:30 to 4:30 and this service is totally confidential.

S.A. feels BCIT is 'unique'

The Right Hon. John,
Prime Minister

Dear Sir

The BCIT Student Association is proud of BCIT's outstanding educational reputation as one of Canada's leading technological institutes. However, with the severe restraint programs the BC Provincial Government has introduced, BCIT is facing a quality of education crisis.

With the advent of the provincial governments Formula

Funding policy towards Post-Secondary institutes, BCIT will be effectively reduced to Community College Status. The SA feels that BCIT is a unique institute in Western Canada whose graduates enhance Canada's standing as a World Technological leader. We are not a community college and should not be funded as such. When you are in Vancouver, we would like to meet with you, in order to discuss the importance of the BCIT graduate to Canadian Industry.

The SA wants to see the present quality of education at BCIT maintained, and we would like to ensure quality education for future students. With the 4200 Day and 20,000 Night students we represent, the BCIT SA needs to know where the NEW Federal Government stands on the issue of BCIT's funding, hence, the quality of technological education in Canada.

We would appreciate from you, an immediate, direct response on this very important matter. Good luck on Sept. 4th.

Donald Rippon

BCIT receives funds to modernize Engineering

Two colleges and the BC Institute of technology will receive a total of 2.7 million dollars to upgrade technological projects through the Federal Skills Growth Fund, Education Minister Jack Heinrich announced today.

'Technology is advancing so quickly that there is an ever-increasing need for funds to keep pace,' said Heinrich. 'I am pleased that the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission recognizes this need and continues to provide funds for such development in our education system.'

Camosun College in Victoria will receive $964,000 to purchase equipment including Computer-Assisted Design/

Computer-Assisted Manufacturing stations, numeric-controlled machines and micro-computers. This new capacity will enable Camosun College to provide essential upgrading capacity for the existing workforce and for training people entering occupations.

'This development will complement the new Faculty of Engineering at the University of Victoria and is important in attracting and developing technology-oriented industry for Vancouver Island,' said the education minister.

The Vancouver Community College approval for $490,000 is to acquire a Computer-Assisted Drafting capacity. This equipment will enable the college to upgrade draftsmen and train new draftsmen on the most current equipment.

The approval for BCIT for $1,249,000 will be used to modernize equipment in five engin-ering programs. This modernization will help BCIT to maintain its prominent position in technology training.

Heinrich said that approval of these projects and earlier projects funded by CEIC will enable colleges and institutes to appropriately prepare people for the increasing computerized and sophisticated workplace.

Ceremony to mark 20th

After a successful Open House earlier this year, BCIT is once again preparing a major event to commemorate its 20 year history. The Anniversary Rededication Ceremony will also mark the start of BCIT's Fund Raising Campaign to raise $10m in capital funds over the next three years. A major contribution to this fund will be announced during the ceremonies by President Gordon Thom.

The Rededication Ceremony will take place on Friday, September 14 in the BCIT grounds with special guest the Honourable Jack Heinrich, Minister of Education, performing the official ceremonies. Cecil Roper, BCIT's first principal, and several other guests from the inaugural opening ceremony in 1964 will

Putting together a good resume is very important

VARSAITY GRAPHIC

- Bev English -

The resume is designed to get you an interview with a prospective employer. The style of your resume is a personal decision and should reflect your individual skills and areas of effectiveness. Be flexible in your format.

Most resumes are up to three pages in length and look most effective when done on a word processor. Coloured paper is acceptable but good white or buff coloured bond gives a very professional impression.

The following format has proven to be popular with employers and is versatile enough to be useful in a wide range of industries.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

This information may be centred at the top of the first page. It includes name, complete address, telephone number and message number.

Do not include your birthdate, height, weight or health unless it is a requirement of the industry you work in or unless you have a health problem that could affect your employability. Also, it is no longer advisable to include your social insurance number on your resume, for reasons of privacy.

CAREER OBJECTIVE

This statement should not be longer than three sentences. It should explain the job you want and/or the kind of company you want to work for. It may also include a statement about your best qualifications for the job you want as well as a statement about any other special skills, abilities or attitudes that will bring you the job.

Employers have stated that this is the most important part of the resume.

EDUCATION

Start with your most recent educational accomplishment first. Do not undersell your education. BCIT should be written out in full and describe your diploma as a 'National Diploma of Technology'. Also, list a few of the major courses included in your two year course at BCIT. A copy of your transcript of marks may also be attached to the resume.

You may also include a category for 'Special courses, projects or awards'.

It is imperative that all the information for a particular marketing page remain on one page and that any additional information, particularly Employment History, start on a new page.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

This category is the one that varies the most in resume design. You may choose any format that best accentuates the skills and experience you have acquired in the labour force. However, remember to highlight the occupation you held rather than the name of the employer or the dates you worked.

In a brief description of your job duties, note any transferable skills acquired (e.g. analyzing, organizing, public speaking, persuading, writing etc.)

Do not discuss reasons for leaving or salary earned. The resume is not intended to answer every question the employer may have.

HOBBIES, ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

This category gives you a chance to give a potential employer some insight into your character and personality.

REFERENCES

'Excellent references supplied on request'. Do not include references unless you are sending a resume at the request of an employer. This procedure will preserve the confidentiality of the people you use as references as well as allow you to change your references for a particular employer.

If you are invited to an interview, bring a list of references at that time.

RESUME REMINDERS

1. Check spelling and grammar.
2. Have it professionally typed or done on a word processor. Use good bond paper.

3. Check your references.

THE COVERING LETTER

Mail your covering letter and resume to a particular person. Your company research will reveal who the person is that does the hiring for a particular company. The letter should include such things as:

1. The position you are applying for and/or your career objective.
2. The reason you are seeking employment with this company or industry.
3. A knowledge of the organization you are making application to.
4. Availability for interviews.

New club to form

The Student Association is anxious to form a Toastmaster Club on BCIT Campus. Students interested in learning about this organization should leave their names at the SA office.

Toastmasters International offers the opportunity to learn effective communication. You learn by actually speaking to groups. You learn not in a cold academic setting but in an atmosphere of understanding and helpful fellowship.

"Open Door" policy adopted by the Executive

A major goal of this year's student executive is to raise the profile of the Student Association, its officers and operations, and its goals. To this end, the executive has provided the following information about the S.A., and each member of the executive has submitted a short letter of introduction.

The Student Association is the collective voice of the students of BCIT. About 25 students act as the board of directors of the association. They are known as the Student Council. It is comprised of nine campus elected executive members, who meet every other week on their own, and 16 members at large representing the three divisions who meet, together with the executive, every other week.

The executive members are elected in April of the school year preceding their term of office (they actually take office June 1). It includes the four 'signing officers' - president, vice president of administration, vice president of public relations and treasurer. In addition there are the society chairpersons, one each for Business, Engineering, Health, Sports and Activities.

The remainder of council, as representatives of the three divisions, are elected at an early meeting of each society. Each society is comprised of the first and second year technology presidents of that division. Anyone can run as a member at large through their society, as long as they intend to attend the meetings and are accepted by the chairpeople present at the first meeting.

As a non-profit organization, the BCIT Student Association operates under a constitution and a set of bylaws. Student Council, as the board of directors, carries out the activities and responsibilities of the association in a manner consistent with the constitution and bylaws. Changes to the bylaws can be made by the council; changes to the constitution, which is a statement of purpose, can only be made by a vote of the full council.

Once a year an annual general meeting is held, usually in Growlies. At this time the President and Treasurer give reports, and move acceptance of a prepared financial "state of the union". Any proposed changes to the constitution itself could be dealt with at this time.

The executive is interested in hearing from the students anytime and this year they are following an "open door" policy, which means the door is always open to any student. Their offices are located in the SAC Building, East Hall.

standing as an educational institute.

I am looking forward to a good year and hope to see as many students as possible interested and involved with the Student Association and its functions.

Extramural Athletics Returns

BCIT, in conjunction with funding assistance from the Student Association, will embark on the gradual re-introduction of an extramural athletic program for the 84/85 academic year. Because of limited funds, the following sports were chosen due to past participation and success rates:

- Badminton- Men & Women
- Curling - Men & Women

- Rugby - Men
- Racquetball & Squash - Men & Women
- Volleyball - Women.

Troy Nagy sports chairperson

I would like to offer all our new students a very warm welcome, and to our returning students, welcome back. The Student Association, in conjunction with Recreation Services urges all students to get involved in Campus Recreation, whether it be intramurals, clubs, or extramurals.

The BCIT curriculum is very intense. If a student were to do home work all the time, the mental stress would be too severe. The Campus Recreation Department offers an opportunity to alleviate some of this pressure through programs that are FUN and enjoyable. The secret to success at BCIT is to take time away from your studies and get participating in Campus Rec.

The Campus Recreation department is situated in the SAC building beside the TNT store. We have an open door policy, so feel free to drop in and ask any questions that you may have. Just ask for Wally Rowan, Campus Rec Coordinator, or Troy Nagy, and we will be happy to help.

I am sure that you will have a very exciting year at BCIT, and that it will be more exciting if you get involved in recreation. Good luck in the upcoming year and remember: Campus Recreation is fun!

After three years of surviving on a shoestring budget the BCIT Cougar Rugby team is more than ready for the start of the 84-85 season.

The rugby team was the only team to survive after all extramural sports were eliminated from BCIT due to budget cuts at the institute. Only through the strong support of the Student Association, the Burnaby Rugby Club, and the work of coach Gary Miller (who is now entering his eighth season as coach of the 'cougs') was the team able to hold on.

And hold on they did, not only did the team remain intact but it managed to finish in the top four and play in one Fraser Valley league championship through the three years of their unofficial existence at BCIT.

Tours have always been an important part of the Cougars season. Last year the team travelled to sunny and hot Pheonix, Arizona, where the Cougs managed a split with the Pheonix Old Boys RFC despite the 110 degree plus heat. This year the team will be touring to Montreal, Ottawa and the surrounding area for nine days. Because of fund-raising the trips have never cost the players more than $150 each.

With seven players returning from last year's team, Miller is looking forward to adding another championship to the four the team has won during the past eight years.

Practices start Tuesday at 5:30 on September 4th and continue every Tuesday and Thursday from that date on. All interested players are welcome to attend a practice with the Cougars - experience as a rugger is not necessary, just a good attitude and a desire to be a winner.
