Grad Gossip

Some enthusiastic first year Computer students are starting a satellite alumni group for computer grads to exchange ideas, information and the building up of a speakers library. They would like to host a function at the October reunion and will be getting in touch with everyone. Contact Alumni Association for more details.

Peter Crowder, Broadcast '68, received an award from the Society of Engineering Technologists for his work examining means of applying optics and laser technology to offshore projects. His company, Crowder Communications Ltd., is devoted to meeting the needs of remote communities using satellite technology.

Class of 1966

Chapelski, Daniel — Hotel/Motel — Dan took time off from his job as comptroller for Maynards to enjoy Open House '84 with his wife Elizabeth.

Gustafson, Ralph — Mechanical — 12 years overseas in Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, India and Mid-East have given Ralph some rich travel experiences. He and wife Margaret live in Victoria where he is the maintenance supervisor for Burrard Yarrows.

Jensen, Bent — Hotel/Motel — Cara, Airline Services and Catering is in his capable hands as Operations Manager. From Richmond he commutes to his Burnaby home and wife Judith.

Gillis, James — Bus Mgt. — athletics still interest Jim although there wasn't much at BCIT. He and wife Margaret live in Burnaby where he is the general manager for Mill and Timber Products Ltd.

Makinson, Barry — Chem & Met — he has gone from the BCIT Rugby team to golf. PVI gets his attention as Director of Institute Learning Material Development, the rest of his attention goes to wife Linda and their home in Burnaby.

Class of 1967

Bradley, Ken — Financial — Data International wouldn't be the same without Ken who is the Manager of Finance, Planning and Information Services. He and wife Connie live in Vancouver, and he instructs part time the Dale Carnegie course in Public Speaking and Human Relations.

Gray, Frank — Computer — now lives in Cranbrook where his hobbies are wife Evelyn, golf, hiking and hockey and his daily bread is Crestbrook Forest Industries where he is the supervisor of Programming and Systems Development.

Nishi, Ernie — Building — can be seen jogging about Richmond seeing what's new as he is the supervisor of the Plan Checking Department for the Corporation of Richmond.

Statham, Frank — E & E — Frank has volunteered an 8mm film of BCIT in 1966, taken from his car window heading north (direct route to the Villa?). Let's hope he can tear himself away from Victoria to the All Years Reunion in October.

Shacklock, Mike — Broadcasting — lives in Ottawa with wife Ellen, where he is employed as a Captain in the Armed Forces. Mike enjoyed the Open House in March and the Broadcast Reunion.

Robinson, Ken — Hotel/Motel — works for CP Air in Vancouver as a sales and service agent. His hobbies include photography and video.

McKendrick, David — Instrumentation — MacMillan Bloedel has kept him and wife Diane in Powell River. Hope they let you out for the Reunion.

Trent, Robert — Mechanical — Placer Developments has kept Robert and wife Karen busy on a three year assignment overseas and he now works for them in the Philippines.

Wintemute, Charles — Marketing — as Vice President of Service Packing Co., Charles doesn't have much spare time but he has volunteered to help with the October reunion. Thank you. All assistance is welcome and needed.

Class of 1968

Buckland, Robert — Building — is building inspector for the City of New Westminster. He lives in Surrey with wife Eileen.

Mutis, Al — Marketing — Crown Forest Products snapped up Al as he graduated and has been there ever since. A 15 year pin this year.

Shortreid, John D. — Survey '68, Photogrammetry '69 — one of our first double diplomas, John has his own company and spends his time in organizations like SET BC, Canadian Institute of Survey and the American Society of Photogrammetry. In between meetings he goes home to Surrey and wife Linda.

Norman, Walter — Marketing — owner operator of the Foam Shop and Coortytype Retail Cookies. He lives in North Vancouver with wife Sharon and his special interest is sailing.

Harrison, Philip — Instrumentation — production supervisor for Alcan in Kitimat where he and wife Linda and two children live.

Milligan, Douglas — Building — Nanaimo is home to he and wife Shirley where he is the estimator administrator for D. Robinson, contracting.

Soon, Harvey — Marketing — interests have changed from the Pres. of the Business Society to soccer, running and weight training. He commutes from Coquitlam to Pacific Centre where he is the manager for Swedish Jewellery Ltd.

Williamson, Rick — Financial — wife Joan and two daughters live in Delta where he commutes to job as comptroller for Chevron.

Nystedt, Janet — Business — won a nice prize at the Alumni Association raffle at Open House. She took a break from studying for her Canadian CGA exams and works as financial assistant for the B.C. Health Assoc.

Tamasi, Robin — Survey — after graduation he worked 13 years with Hydrographic Service in Victoria. In 1981 he accepted a position with Alberta Power to avoid field work. Now freezing in Edmonton, he would like to move back to Victoria!

Class of 1969

Lukasek, John — E & E — chief electrician at Placer Developments, Endako Mines. Lives in Fraser Lake with wife Susan and three children.

Hillyard, Ken — Survey — lives with wife Eileen in Cobble Hill and commutes to Nanaimo to his firm of Wright, Hillyard and Parry Surveying.

McKinnon, (Perehinski) Phyllis — Financial — to relax from her job with Chevron Canada Ltd., Phyllis enjoys watercolour and oil painting.

Holland, Mark — Instrumentation — took a career change and is now a fireman for the City of Vancouver. He and wife Wendy live in Surrey.

Huckvale, Cuthbert — Marketing — Cus was chairman for the Student Assoc. in 68-69, and traded that in for a job as a registered representative with Midland Doherty.

Class of 1970

Vyner, David — Building — keeps busy with wife Vickie and his job as estimator, designer, salesman and expeditor for Quinney and Fuller Construction Ltd. in Nanaimo. Still an enthusiastic curler, he has added little league coach and cub master to his interests.

Connacher, Stuart — C & S — moved to Prince Rupert with B.C. Hydro and says he enjoys the Northern Coast. His interests are skiing, sailing, scuba diving and squash. Stu was one of the many to welcome Gordon Thom to Prince Rupert.

Phillipson, James married Shepherd, Cathrine, both computer grads, they live in North Vancouver and have their own business, Tymac Launch Service.

Pillsbury, Jon — E & E — is the staff engineer for Mac & Blo White Pine Division. His wife Lorna, known to BCIT contemporaries as "Sunny", says hello.

Confectioner, (Jansen) Gonny — Admin Management — just moved to Toronto to raise a family, leaving the work force as Admin Asst. in the national office of CGA Canada. She would like to hear from her classmates.

McKie, James — Instrumentation — is sales engineer for Northern Columbia Process Equipment and lives with wife Heather in North Vancouver. James volunteered to act as class rep for 1969 and 1970 Instrumentation. Good for you!

Ackerman, Andrew — Forestry — and Lanthier, Michele — Nursing — are married and living in Smithers. Andrew's job with the government has taken him to Prince George and Rupert, Duncan and Kamloops. Michele hopes to return to nursing when their three children grow up.

Merriman, John — Forestry — another traveller around B.C. going from Prince George, Vanderhoof, Fort St. John, Queen Charlottes and now Nanaimo.

Class of 1971

Gough, Don — Parks, Fish and Wildlife — lives with wife Lorraine and two children in Williams Lake. Don would like to get together with his class and what better time than the October Reunion.

Round the Bend by Jackie Pleasants

Jackie is a Broadcast '67 grad who now writes for the Grand Forks Gazette

Took some time off last week to attend a class reunion.

The reunion was for graduates of the B.C. Institute of Technology broadcasting students.

It was a strange feeling to return to a place that was once home, with butterflies in my stomach at the thought of not recognizing anyone.

As it is nearly 20 years, I was told to expect the worst, but it was a bit of an eye-opener. I didn't find anyone had changed at all.

A little older, a little flabbier, but I didn't see any great leaps of maturity, or old age creeping up.

Actually the only old age I saw was the same old age that was creeping up on all the female students 20 years ago.

What is really strange is how our lives parallel.

Coming together, losing touch and finding each other again, never quite losing interest.

I guess that comes from spending two years of your life inseparably with 24 others all with similar interests.

Stranger still was hearing that one of my fellow graduates, an old man now, well past his prime, will be taking over the morning program at CKGF.

Ron was always the fellow who drooled over motorbikes, cute girls and spaghetti.

Spaghetti I'd say was his main accomplishment.

WHY SHOULD A SINGLE PERSON
BUY LIFE INSURANCE?

- To leave your family enough money to pay whatever liabilities you may leave them with at the time of your death.
- As your age and health change, so does the cost of your insurance.
- You might not be able to get insurance later on. Health, hobbies, occupation and moral hazard affect your ability to obtain new insurance. Whatever insurance you get now guarantees that you will have at least that much coverage later on.
- Life insurance is not an investment but it can provide for the completion of your investment programme in the event of your death.
- Your insurance policy can be used to help secure a loan. Also, it provides a character reference in that if you can maintain payments on an intangible such as life insurance, you will certainly pay your loan.
- A problem with life is that people either die too soon or live too long. Insurance can provide a cash solution in either event!

FEELING GREAT!

WONDERFUL CANADIAN DESIGNERS — JEWELLERY AND ACCESSORIES

CAROLE CHANIN — Well known in Canada and the U.S.A., and soon Europe, for her unique silver, brass and copper jewellery.

PHYLLIS SUIAS — Lovely and creative accessories for the individual person with a zest for life and a love for antiques and beauty. She combines ultra modern with beautiful antique jewels for her great designs.

LOTTY HEIDOLF — Beautiful individual knitwear, wonderful to wear for men and women. Sweaters are a very important and thoroughly modern aspect in dressing for now and in the future.

GILLIE RICE — Recognized in Canada and the U.S.A. for her lovely silk and lace creations. She also instructs in pattern drafting and draping and fashion illustration. She uses a combination of different textures to create her effects.

ILZE ABELL — Designer for television and theatre for many years and now involved with a new line of tops and skirts. She likes to create for people who want something dramatic and different.

LUCY NEUMANN — Designer of Newline, Star Hollywood (Toronto) going from childrens clothing to sexy and romantic clothes for men and women of all ages.

JEAN DAVIDSON — Winner of numerous awards for design and modelling for T.V. and theatre. A BCIT grad, she is back to create fashions for the adventurous and young at heart.

All exhibitors will have display booths in the foyer after the show and will be offering discounts on services and merchandise to guests.

HELP: We need volunteers to help with the show, in modelling, public relations, work crews and videotaping.

Commentator — preferably a BCIT Broadcasting grad. Please contact Jean Davidson at wk. 879-9304 or hm: 438-6058

Would all other volunteers phone or write to the Alumni Association.

SHOW IS OPEN TO BCIT GRADS AND INVITED GUESTS.

Summer Games

Over 3,600 athletes are expected for the 1984 Games to be held in Burnaby from July 19 to 22. This event is one of the largest sporting events on the North American continent and over 3,000 volunteers are needed to make it a success.

The athletes will compete in 33 different events, including swimming, track and field, golf, rowing, cricket, shooting, cycling and much more. Also, about 150 physically disabled athletes will compete in swimming, track and field, tennis, archery and shooting.

If you would like to be a real part of the Games, volunteer to help behind the scenes as several of the BCIT staff are already doing. Dave Hume, local 735, is BCIT's official liaison with the Games office. Call him to become a member of any one of the twelve committees. Or call the B.C. Games office direct, 438-1984.
